Special Issue: “Advances in Engineering Management Education”

The journal Engineering Management Reviews (EMR) deals with papers related with aspects of engineering management. This special issue put emphasis up on the engineering management education. You are encouraged to contribute to the special issue by submitting your latest research and review papers in the related field.

Submitted manuscripts must be original contributions, not previously published or submitted to other journals nor be under consideration for publication elsewhere. Papers published or submitted for publication in conference proceedings may be considered provided that they are extended and improved.

Submission
Perspective authors can submit their manuscripts online by clicking here.

Submission Deadline: June 15, 2014
Tentative Publication Date: August 15, 2014

Guest Editors: